

VIRGINIA: IN THE GENERAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE CITY OF VIRGINIA BEACH
COLLECTION OF FINES FOR PREPAYABLE OFFENSES THOROUGHOUT A SCHEDULED COURT DATE
ORDER

The accounting division of the Virginia Beach General District Court is hereby authorized to collect fines and costs for pre-payable traffic and criminal offenses throughout a scheduled court date, including while courts are in session. If a defendant is found guilty in absentia and the Judge marks the case accordingly, but the Court's case management system reflects that the defendant has waived the court hearing and prepaid, the clerk or deputy clerk shall mark the warrant or summons to reflect that pre-payment has occurred and shall initial the notation accordingly.

All prior orders of this Court pertaining to matters covered by this order are hereby rescinded.

Entered this 2nd day of June, 2020

Daniel R. Lahne, Chief Judge
